Miami is one of my favorite places. It has everything I love in a city; beach, great art, food, shopping and people watching. Great family destination (especially teenagers!) and a great romantic getaway. The past few years have really made Miami a spot on the map to travel to. I get to travel here once a year and I love it!

DAY 1

Start your morning by going for a walk / run on the Miami Beach Boardwalk to breakfast at Big Pink.

Big Pink

157 Collins Ave (at 2nd St)

(305) 532-4700

Morning activity:

Enjoy the best thing Miami has to offer. The Beach!

While in Miami you must enjoy traditional Cuban cuisine. Have a late lunch with classic lunch at Puerto Sagua then go shopping along Collins Ave and Ocean Drive.

700 Collins Ave.

(305) 673-1115

Late Afternoon:

This converted warehouse is a great addition to the Miami art scene!

Visit Rubell Museum

95 NW 29th St (On 29th St.)

(305) 573-6090

Dinner:

Stubborn Seed

$$$

**$$

223 NW 23rd St

(305) 573-5996

DAY 3

DAY AT WYNWOOD WALLS

Wynwood Walls

Enjoy a really fun filled day here... the colors and crowds are quintessential Miami its a great area to hang out and explore! I love it here ! Walk around the Wynwood area not just the walls itself. Little his/herstory:

The Wynwood Walls were created in 2009 by the late Tony Goldman in an effort to develop the area's pedestrian potential. Goldman bought his first building in Wynwood in 2004, and owned nearly two dozen properties by 2008. Artists from around the world have contributed to the Wynwood Walls. (wikipedia)

Breakfast:

A MUST

Zak the Baker

405 NW 26th St

CAR RENTAL

**TAKE OFF TIP** You do NOT need a car in Miami, walking and Uber / Taxis make the most sense as paying for a garage in your hotel can get pricey. If you do decide to rent a car hop in a taxi / uber from the airport ask to have your car delivered to your hotel the following day to save time and money.
